The Nest at Ruth Farms

Cow is this venue the bee's knees!! And it's in my childhood neck of the wood's. BONUS!! I met with Whitney and she told me all about it. If you want a venue with people who will treat you like their own family I recommend considering this sweet venue. Check out my story to see a few clips of the venue!

successful and then they copy it and claim it as theirs....

mimischmotzer Saw the new venue in Dallas that looks just like the white sparrow and I could not believe my eyes.. I felt the pain for you! It isn't fair and unbelievable (especially in the same city) that someone would just rip all your work! It makes me wanna say something so bad, like how could you!? I cannot wait to get married here next December! It's everything I ever dreamed of and one of a kind! Prayers @thewhitesparrow .. you have so many
